

January 2020 Newsletter

Hotel

We are offering vacations at specific hotels in our local tourist area in addition to our own hotel, which tends to get busy. The optional hotel does get expensive so our own hotel is often the best choice. We are seeking additional alternate hotels. However, our guests who have already returned for additional visits prefer the current hotel.

Companion Photos

I routinely pass photographs of new companions to guests during the initial email exchange. The depicted companions are still available. The reason is that some clients simply seek out risqué photographs.

Airlines

We monitor the flights specified by our guests. Guests typically worry if their flight is delayed. The downside of a delayed flight is that we wait at the airport somewhat longer before the guest arrives. The problem with airline scheduling is that flights can and do arrive early. This means that the guest may wait for his pickup in the arrival area.

No Tipping Policy

Our no tipping policy applies only to the companions.

If hotel staff of any of our hotels have done a good job as I am sure they will, please consider the usual gratuity for persons employed in the hospitality industry in the Caribbean.

Carlos