Business Practices

While I have been in the adult vacation business since 1992, the way I do business has changed to resolve issues that have popped up. The best change is the use of a US vacation-consulting firm to collect the booking deposit from US resident vacationers. A caller from British Columbia who anticipated that we would operate like "normal" vacation companies recently branded me a scam. I am sorry I will go out business before I operate as badly from a guest perspective as the likes of Thomas Cook, Air Canada, Westjet, Sunwing, and Air Transat among others. I asked a frequent guest to call him and refute his statements; however, he did not answer his phone.

Companion Photos

I routinely pass photographs of new companions to guests during the initial email exchange. The depicted companions are still available. The reason is that some clients simply seek out risqué photographs.

Optional Hotel

We are offering vacations at one hotel in our local tourist area in addition to our own hotel, which tends to get busy. The optional hotel does get expensive so our own hotel is often the best choice.

No Tipping Policy

Our no tipping policy applies only to the companions.

If hotel staff have done a good job as I am sure they will, please consider the usual gratuity for persons employed in the hospitality industry in the Caribbean.
